An Evening with Charles Frazier on Varina

Thursday, April 26, 2018
Eudora Welty House and Garden
5:00 p.m.
Free and open to the public

Charles Frazier will join Festival Director Holly Lange to discuss his new novel, Varina and will sign books immediately following.

SPECIAL EVENT PRESENTED BY MISSISSIPPI BOOK FESTIVAL AND LEMURIA BOOKS

Holly Lange is looking forward to sitting on the porch with Mr. Frazier, “What an enormous honor to interview Charles Frazier at the Eudora Welty House and Garden. I have enjoyed and admired his writing and Varina is no exception. I was captivated from start to finish.”

Charles Frazier, historical fiction writer and National Book Award winner for his debut novel Cold Mountain, will bring his timely new book to life as he discusses Varina, based on the life of Confederate President Jefferson Davis’s wife – a woman of strength and independence who was far ahead of her time. Frazier contends that the presence of Civil War monuments in America today “indicates how much the issues of the Civil War are . . . baked into the framework of our country and our culture.” He lives in his home state of North Carolina.

“I think of historical fiction as a conversation between the present and the past.”

WORDS FROM THE DIRECTOR

"Everyone loves the Mississippi Book Festival! It's inspiring and invigorating to be a part of something so good for our state. We are thrilled at the response of the public as well as authors and publishers who want to participate each year. We are grateful to those who continue to support the festival financially so we can provide what is perhaps one of the largest public events in Mississippi. And after this crazy winter, no one will complain about the heat in August!"

MISSISSIPPI BOOK FESTIVAL

FREE and open to the public, the Mississippi Book Festival draws thousands to its annual “literary lawn party” held in and around the State Capitol Building each August. Since its debut in 2015, this non-profit has celebrated writing, reading, and our literary heritage, as well as connected readers with hundreds of contemporary authors.
